Perryfields Primary PRU is proud to provide a curriculum which has a personal rights respecting agenda within it. We are an inclusive school and provide excellent pastoral and well-being support to all our children, and foster community links at every opportunity.

At our school there is no place for extremist views of any kind. Our children know that our school is a safe place, and all adults at Perryfields have a duty of care to ensure that this happens.

The government definition of extremism in its 'Prevent Strategy' is:

'Vocal or active opposition to fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs; and/or calls for the death of members of our armed forces, whether in this country or overseas.'

We recognise that exposure to extremism materials and influences can lead to poor outcomes and will be addressed as a safeguarding concern as set out in this document. We acknowledge that if we fail to challenge extremist views we are failing to protect our pupils, and tackling extremism comes under the remit of our Designated Child Protection Officers.

The Designated Child Protection Officer is: Mr Hines (Headteacher)

Alternate Designated Professionals: Mr Harrison, Mrs Vaughan

Education is a powerful tool against the ignorance, division and fear created by extremism. We will provide children with the knowledge, skills and critical thinking to challenge extremist ideas.

School Ethos and Practice

At Perryfields, we provide a broad and balanced curriculum in the context of our values and rights respecting agenda, so that our children embrace difference and diversity, and feel valued members of our school community.

We are aware that children can be exposed to extremist influences or prejudiced views from early childhood through a variety of sources and media, and that they may at times reflect or display views which may be discriminatory, prejudiced or extremist, or use offensive language.

Any discrimination, prejudice or extremist views, including offensive language, shown by pupils or staff will be dealt with in line with our Behaviour Policy and staff Code of Conduct, and will always be addressed.

Teaching Approaches

Our teaching will support British Values, and ensure that children do not feel alienated or disempowered.

We place high priority on spiritual, moral, social and cultural development, which we achieve through our quality delivery of:

- PSHE
- RE
- School assemblies

Our children are encouraged to have a positive and strong self-identity and foster a sense of belonging.

We also adhere to the main methods outlined in the governmental guidance 'Teaching Approaches that help build resilience to extremism among young people.' (DfE 2011):

- We make good connections with our children through good teaching design and a child-centred approach
- We facilitate a safe place for discussion and dialogue
- We equip our children with the skills, knowledge and understanding and awareness to develop resilience.

We promote the values of democracy through pupils having ample opportunities to vote on decisions regarding our school.

We value the rule of law and individual liberty, mutual respect and tolerance to those of other faiths, backgrounds and beliefs. We teach all our children to respect each other and tolerate differences.

The role of the Management Committee

The Management Committee will undertake appropriate training to ensure that they are clear about their role and the parameters of their responsibilities as members, including their statutory safeguarding duties.

The Management Committee support our ethos and values, and will support us in tackling any form of radicalisation or extremism. The policy will be reviewed bi annually from October 2019 or sooner if the need arises.
