1. Statement of intent

At Perryfields Primary PRU we understand that bereavement is faced by members of our school community at different times, whether this is the death of a family member, a friend or a member of the school community. We understand the importance of providing support to pupils, staff, governors and the wider school community during and after bereavement.

This policy provides a framework whereby this support is provided and outlines how the school will respond to these sensitive situations.

NB. In this policy, all mentions of 'the family' refer to the family of the deceased individual. The wishes of the family will always be considered when carrying out any of the actions outlined in this policy. If the family objects to any of the procedures, the school will work to ensure reasonable adjustments are made.

2. Legal framework

2.1 This policy has due regard to all relevant legislation and statutory guidance including, but not limited to, the following:

- Children Act 1989
- Employment Rights Act 1996
- Equality Act 2010
- DfE (2018) 'Mental health and behaviour in schools'
- DfE (2019) 'Keeping children safe in education'
- Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy (2018) 'Good Work Plan'
- The Parental Bereavement Leave and Pay Regulations 2020
- Parental Bereavement (Leave and Pay) Act 2018

2.2 This policy has been created with due regard to the following guidance:

- Winston's Wish (2019) 'A Guide to Supporting Grieving Children and Young People in Education'
- Winston's Wish (2019) 'A Strategy for Schools: Positive Responses to Death'
- Samaritans (2017) 'Help When We Needed it Most'
- Child Bereavement UK (2018) 'Schools' Information Pack'

1.1.1. This policy operates in conjunction with the following school policies:

- Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy
- Social, Emotional and Mental Health (SEMH) Policy
- Behaviour and Relationships Policy
- Anti-bullying Policy

- Maternity, Paternity, Adoption and Parental Leave Policy.

3. Roles and responsibilities

3.1 The Management Committee will be responsible for:

- Overseeing the implementation of this policy.
- Reviewing this policy with the headteacher on an annual basis to ensure its effectiveness.

3.2 The headteacher will be responsible for:

- The overall implementation of this policy.
- Liaising with external agencies, as appropriate.
- Informing governors and staff when a death occurs and arranging for pupils to be informed, as appropriate and with approval from the family.
- Being the first point of contact for staff, pupils and parents/carers directly involved in a death, or designating this role to another appropriate member of staff.
- Responding to any enquiries from the media or the wider school community, or appointing a member of staff to undertake these duties.
- Ensuring staff have the necessary training to support bereaved pupils and to deliver sensitive news.

3.3 The SENCO will be responsible for:

- Undertaking bereavement support training and conducting in-school training to share their knowledge with other staff.
- Supporting the headteacher in carrying out the procedures outlined in this policy.
- Supporting staff, pupils and parents/carers following a death, as directed by the headteacher.
- Supporting other staff members with communicating the news of a death.
- Making referrals pupils, staff and other members of the school community to receive support.

3.4 The media spokesperson will be responsible for:

- Liaising with the media as required.
- Monitoring media and social media activity regarding the death.
- Respecting the family's wishes in relation to what information can be provided to the media.

3.5 All staff members will be responsible for:

- Undertaking any bereavement support training arranged by the headteacher or SLT.

- Seeking support from SLT as appropriate.
- Supporting their colleagues and pupils following a death, as appropriate.

4. The initial response

4.1 If the family or member of staff contacts the school to inform them of a death, the member of staff that answers the phone will transfer the call to the headteacher or the most senior member of staff available.

4.2 If the school is made aware of the death through a source other than the family, the headteacher will contact the family either by phone or through a home visit.

4.3 The headteacher will gather factual information about what has happened and establish the family's wishes with regards to what information will be communicated to the school community and how.

4.4 If a death affects the entire school, e.g. the death of a pupil or member of staff, the headteacher will inform the family that staff and pupils will be informed as soon as possible.

4.5 If the death affects an individual member of staff, e.g. the death of a relative, the headteacher will ask the member of staff if they would like this to be communicated to any of their colleagues. If it is decided that the death will be communicated, the headteacher will discuss with the staff member what information will be communicated and how they would like it to be delivered.

4.6 If a death affects an individual pupil, e.g. the death of a parent, the headteacher will ask the family if they would like this to be communicated to the school community. If it is decided that the death will be communicated, the headteacher will discuss with the family, and the pupil if possible, what information will be communicated and how the family would like it to be delivered.

4.7 If the death of a pupil's family member occurs while the pupil is at school, a member of the pupil's family will be asked to come to the school to inform the pupil of what has happened and to take them home. If this is not possible, arrangements will be made for a member of staff to take the pupil home.

4.8 The headteacher will make contact with any other agencies as required, e.g. the police.

4.9 The headteacher will decide if any temporary variation needs to be made to the school timetable, e.g. rearranging or cancelling certain lessons.

4.10 In the event of the death of the headteacher, or in their absence, the deputy headteacher will be responsible for the duties outlined above.

5. Informing staff and the Management Committee

5.1 Staff and governors will be informed of the death before pupils. All staff and governors will be invited to a meeting by the headteacher as soon as practicable.

5.2 Absent staff and governors, including part-time and peripatetic staff, will be identified so they can be informed as soon as possible. If it is not possible for absent staff to be told in person, a phone call will be arranged.

5.3 Any information provided to staff and governors during the meeting will have prior approval from the family.

5.4 During the meeting, the headteacher, with the support of SLT, will:

- Explain what happened leading up to the death.
- Give a factual explanation of how the death occurred.
- Allow time for staff and governors to discuss what has happened and how they feel.
- Designate a member of staff as media spokesperson who will be responsible for liaising with the media as required.
- Identify what internal and external support is available to staff and governors.
- Discuss the arrangements for informing pupils, including whether all pupils will be told and who will be responsible for informing them.

5.5 Staff members that will be responsible for informing pupils about the death will be provided with a script which sets out what pupils should be told and includes information on how to answer some difficult questions. The headteacher and SLT will create the script, with input from the family.

6. Informing pupils

6.1 The headteacher will have a discussion with the family about whether all pupils need to be informed about the death. If the death affects the whole school, e.g. the death of a staff member or pupil, the headteacher will strongly recommend to the family that all pupils should be informed; however, if the death does not affect the whole school, it may be more appropriate to just inform certain groups of pupils.

6.2 The headteacher will make the final decision regarding which pupils will be informed. Where possible, pupils will be informed about the death in small groups by a member of staff that is familiar to them at the same time.

6.3 Pupils with specific needs that may influence their response to being informed about the death will be identified and told separately. These needs include the following:

- Pupils that had a long-term and/or close relationship with the individual who has died
- Pupils with a history of loss
- Pupils with SEND
- Pupils who have difficulty managing their emotions or behaviour

6.4 Staff responsible for informing pupils will use the script provided to them. To ensure all pupils are told about the death in an age-appropriate way, a number of scripts may be created and distributed to staff with clear instructions of which script to use for which year group.

6.5 Where possible, a member of SLT will be present when pupils are told about a death so they can help with answering any questions.

6.6 Pupils will be given time to ask questions about what has happened and to talk about how they are feeling. Any questions that are asked by pupils will be answered factually.

6.7 Pupils will be told where they can go to in school for support and will also be directed to any external support.

7. Informing pupils in a large group

7.1 If it is not appropriate to inform pupils about a death in small groups, the headteacher, in communication with the family, will decide if it would be appropriate to inform pupils in a large group, e.g. during an assembly.

7.2 Where an individual pupil has been bereaved, they will be asked if they want to attend the assembly and, if they do not want to be involved, appropriate support will be arranged for the pupil during and after the assembly.

7.3 The headteacher will tell the family and, where relevant, the bereaved pupil exactly what they will say and to whom. The headteacher, with support from relevant SLT, will deliver the information to pupils.

7.4 After pupils have been informed, they will go to their classrooms and be given time to express any thoughts or feelings about what they have been told.

8. Informing parents/carers

8.1 The headteacher will have a discussion with the family about whether any parents/carers need to be informed about the death.

8.2 If the death affects the whole school, e.g. the death of a staff member or pupil, the headteacher will strongly recommend to the family that all parents/carers should be informed; however, if the death does not affect the whole school, it may be more appropriate to just inform parents/carers that are directly affected, if any.

8.3 A nominated member of staff will compose a letter to parents/carers about the death. The letter will contain the basic, factual information about the death, information about how the school is supporting pupils, how they can support their children, and who to direct questions or concerns to.

9. Funerals

9.1 If appropriate, the headteacher will discuss with the family whether any staff, governors or pupils are able to attend the funeral. With the family's approval, the headteacher will arrange for the school to be represented at the funeral and identify which staff and pupils may want to attend.

9.2 The headteacher and chair of the Management Committee will decide if it is necessary for the school to be fully or partially closed.

9.3 Transportation to and from the funeral will be arranged for staff and pupils, as appropriate. Necessary cover arrangements will be made for staff attending the funeral.

10. The media and social media

10.1 Any communication with the media or social media activity will be agreed with the family.

10.2 Only the appointed media spokesperson will deal with media enquiries and communications. Staff, governors and pupils will not respond to any media enquiries themselves or make any public statements about the death.

10.3 Staff, governors and pupils will not post any information about the death on social media. The media spokesperson will investigate any post made regarding the death and will refer any concerns to the headteacher.

10.4 If information about the death is circulated on social media prior to the school making an official statement, the headteacher and media spokesperson will release a statement, with the agreement of the family, to prevent rumours from spreading.

10.5 Comments and other activity on school-posted social media statements will be monitored and moderated by the media spokesperson.

10.6 If staff, governors or pupils find any false, negative or malicious information being posted about the death on social media, they will report this to the headteacher.

10.7 If a member of staff is found to have been posting content on social media or providing information to the media that is false, negative or malicious, action will be taken in line with the disciplinary procedures.

10.8 If a pupil is found to have been posting content on social media or providing information to the media that is false, negative or malicious, action will be taken in line with the Behaviour and Relationships Policy.

11. Support for the family

11.1 The headteacher will be the main point of contact between the school and the family, or will appoint another member of staff to this role where necessary. The headteacher will invite the family into the school to discuss how the school can best support them.

11.2 The family's wishes and feelings will always be considered and respected when making decisions and conducting activities relating to the death.

11.3 Any support that is put in place will be decided on a case-by-case basis, depending on the family's needs and wishes. Support could include the following:

- Sending a letter of condolence
- Giving the family the opportunity to collect any personal belongings of the person who has died
- Inviting the family to commemorative events held by the school

12. Support for staff

12.1 Staff directly affected by the death, e.g. if they are a relative or close friend of the individual that has died, will be identified and the appropriate support will be put in place.

12.2 The level of support will be decided on a case-by-case basis by the headteacher, and may include the following:

- Ensuring the staff member is not left on their own
- Arranging for lessons or other duties to be covered
- Organising bereavement leave

12.3 Staff who lose a child under the age of 18, or suffer a stillbirth from 24 weeks of pregnancy, irrespective of how long they have worked at the school, will be given a minimum of two weeks' paid bereavement leave.

12.4 Staff may take bereavement leave as either a single block of two weeks, or as two separate blocks of one week, each taken at different times across the first year after their child's death.

12.5 Any member of staff who loses a child under the age of 18 or suffers a stillbirth from 24 weeks of pregnancy, and has been employed at the school for at least 26 weeks up to the end of the 'relevant week' (i.e. the week, ending with a Saturday, immediately before the week of the death or stillbirth), will be able to claim Statutory Parental Bereavement Pay (SPBP). To be eligible, the staff member must also:

- Continue to be employed up to the day the child dies or is stillborn.
- Earn on average £120 a week before tax over an 8-week period.
- Give the school the correct notice and information for SPBP.

12.6 Staff members will be eligible for SPBP if they meet the government's eligibility criteria in its 'Statutory Parental Bereavement Pay and Leave' guidance.

12.7 The government's tables showing relevant weeks and start dates for SPBP will be used to check staff members' entitlement to SPBP, and when it should be paid.

12.8 Any member of staff who loses a child after 24 weeks of pregnancy, or during maternity leave, will not lose their entitlement to maternity leave and pay.

12.9 All staff members will be offered the opportunity to speak to a member of the pastoral team one-to-one. Staff members will be given information about the in-school and external support they can access.

12.10 A designated room will be made available to staff where they can go during break and lunchtimes to meet with other staff and share their thoughts and feelings.

12.11 Staff will be vigilant to the signs that indicate their colleagues have been affected by bereavement and will offer them support or make a referral to a member of SLT.

13. Support for individual pupils

13.1 For pupils that have experienced a significant bereavement, e.g. of a family member, a member of staff that is familiar with the pupil will be appointed to act as their main point of contact – the pupil will be made aware of who the staff member is.

13.2 The headteacher will contact the pupil's family to discuss whether the pupil will be attending school. Any support put in place for a pupil will be pupil-led, based on their needs and wishes.

13.3 When deciding what support will be put in place for a pupil, the impact the death will have on the pupil will always be considered in the context of pre-existing factors. The following contextual factors will be considered:

- The circumstances surrounding the death, e.g. was it under traumatic circumstances, was the death expected, or did multiple people die?
- The relationship between the pupil and the person who has died.
- The ability of the pupil's family to support them following the death, e.g. if a pupil's parent has died, how able is the surviving parent to support the pupil?
- Family factors such as size, financial state, structure, style of coping, communication and stressors that affect the child.
- The support the pupil has from their peers and other organisations and people.
- Characteristics of the pupil, including their age and any SEND they have.

13.4 The pupil will be a part of discussions regarding who should be informed about the death and how, where appropriate.

13.5 If a pupil chooses to attend school immediately after a bereavement, they will be allowed a flexible timetable and staff members will be made aware that the pupil may not be able to work to their usual capacity. The designated staff member will keep in communication with the pupil's family to inform them about how the pupil is doing.

13.6 If the pupil is absent from school following the bereavement, they will be made aware of who has been informed about what has happened and what they were told. The designated staff member will make regular contact with the pupil during their absence. The headteacher, designated staff member, pupil and the pupil's family will make arrangements for the pupil's return to school, e.g. a phased return.

13.7 Any safeguarding concerns regarding a bereaved pupil will be dealt with in line with the Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy.

14. Support for all pupils

14.1 All pupils, even those not directly affected by the death, will need to be supported following a death, particularly if the death affects the whole school community, e.g. the death of a staff member. Pupils will be given the opportunity to speak to a member of SLT.

14.2 Staff will talk to pupils about what has happened using age-appropriate and developmental stage appropriate language.

14.3 Following a death in the school community, pupils will be invited to take part in remembrance activities, e.g. remembrance assemblies.

14.4 Staff will identify any pupils that may need more direct support and make a referral to the headteacher who will assess what support might be required in collaboration with SLT.

15. Behaviour and SEMH issues

15.1 Staff will remain vigilant to the following behaviours that a pupil may display immediately after the death of someone close to them:

- Inability to concentrate
- Lack of motivation
- Tiredness and irritability
- Heightened sensitivity to comments and remarks
- Inability to take others' feelings into account
- Anger, frustration or aggression
- A general change in behaviour, e.g. becoming unnaturally quiet or withdrawn
- Anxiety
- Being easily upset by events that would normally be trivial to them
- Physical complaints, such as headaches, stomach aches and a general tendency to be prone to minor illness

15.2 The pupil's designated staff member will keep in contact with the pupil's family and share information about how the pupil is behaving at school and home.

15.3 Any challenging behaviour displayed by bereaved pupils will be addressed using the individual graduated response outlined in the Behaviour and Relationships Policy.

15.4 A record will be made of anniversaries and days with regards to the death which may act as a trigger for challenging behaviour.

15.5 Any incidents of bullying, where a bereaved pupil is the victim or perpetrator, will be addressed in line with the Anti-bullying Policy, taking into account the pupil's needs and circumstances.

15.6 All staff members will remain vigilant to signs that a bereaved pupil is facing difficulties in relation to their psychological, physical and social development and will refer the pupil to SLT who will put appropriate support in place.

15.7 The school's Mental Health and Wellbeing Policy will be followed to ensure pupils that may be vulnerable to developing or experiencing SEMH issues following a bereavement can be identified and appropriately supported.

16. Specific circumstances

The procedures outlined in this policy will be followed for all deaths affecting the school community and individual pupils; however, specific measures will be implemented for certain circumstances.

17. Pre-bereavement – when a family member is not expected to live

17.1 If a pupil has an illness where they are not expected to live, their family will make the school aware of the situation and the school will ensure the appropriate support is in place.

17.2 A member of SLT will meet with the pupil fortnightly to provide the pupil with an opportunity to talk about what is happening and how they are feeling.

17.3 All staff will remain vigilant to signs that the pupil is facing challenges in relation to their psychological, physical and social development and will refer any concerns to SLT who will ensure appropriate support is put in place.

18. Pupils with a life-threatening illness

18.1 Pupils with life-threatening illnesses will be encouraged to take part in school routines as much as possible, and the school will continue to expect the usual standards of behaviour as appropriate.

18.2 The headteacher, the pupil and their family, and other relevant staff members (e.g. a member of SLT) will decide how to share the news that a pupil is terminally ill with the school community.

18.3 Other pupils will be informed about how they can best support the pupil in the most appropriate way.

18.4 If the pupil is receiving treatment from a local hospice or hospital, the key professional responsible for the pupil will be identified and the headteacher will contact this person for advice and support as necessary.

19. Suicide

19.1 The school will respond to a suspected suicide within 48 hours. The headteacher, or other appointed member of staff, will contact the police or the family as soon as possible to confirm the death and whether it is being treated as a suicide.

19.2 If the family does not wish the cause of death to be disclosed to the school community, the school will state that the nature and cause of death are still being determined and that additional information will be forthcoming.

19.3 If the death is subject to an ongoing investigation, the headteacher will check with the police before speaking about the death with pupils who may need to be interviewed by the police.

19.4 Staff will be told about the death first, in line with this policy.

19.5 The script that staff will use to inform pupils of the death will be factual while avoiding excessive detail about the suicidal act itself.

19.6 Immediate emotional support will be arranged for any pupils and staff who require it.

19.7 A designated room will be set up where pupils and staff can go to if they are struggling with the news.

19.8 Liaison with the media will be handled in line with this policy.

Any information distributed to the school community and media regarding the death will:

- Be factually correct but not include detail of the cause of death or method used.
- Not romanticise, glorify or vilify the death.
- Not include details of any suicide note.
- Not include speculation over the motivation for suicide.

19.9 Research indicates that pupils that have been directly affected by suicide are at an increased risk of taking their own life. Staff will report any concerns about pupils to the headteacher and the appropriate support will be put in place or a referral to specialist services will be made in line with the SEMH Policy.

19.10 Any memorial activities conducted by the school will be held within two weeks of the death; following this, any memorial material will be given to the family.

20. Cultural and religious behaviours

20.1 The school will keep in mind the cultural attitudes and behaviours relating to a death and will make sure these needs are taken into consideration when putting support in place for those affected, including the length of bereavement leave for members of staff.

21. Forces' families

21.1 The needs and feelings of bereaved forces' pupils will always be considered prior to any school activities relating to the armed forces, e.g. commemorating Armed Forces Day, and additional support will be put in place for pupils as required.

21.2 Appropriate support will be implemented for bereaved forces' pupils, particularly during times of change.

21.3 Bereaved forces' pupils will be protected from any unwanted media attention and there will be a designated area in school that the pupil can go to if they are feeling overwhelmed.

22. A death involving murder or manslaughter

22.1 The headteacher will contact the police or the family to establish the facts about what has happened.

22.2 A designated staff member will be available to talk to the pupil to help them to answer any questions they may get from their peers about what has happened.

22.3 Research indicates that pupils that have been bereaved due to murder or manslaughter can be at significant risk of developing PTSD. Any concerns relating to the pupil will be addressed in line with the Mental Health and Wellbeing Policy.

22.4 Media personnel will not be permitted onto the school site at any time.

23. Remembrance activities

Following a death in the school community, the school may conduct some remembrance activities, e.g. a remembrance assembly. The family will always be consulted prior to any remembrance activities being planned and will be invited to take part in the activities. All members of the school community, including staff, governors, pupils and parents/carers, will be invited to take part in remembrance activities. All remembrance activities will be planned so that they are respectful of the culture and religious beliefs of the family.

24. Managing transitions

24.1 Information about pupils that have been bereaved will be recorded.

This information will be shared with relevant parties at key transition points, including the following:

- If the pupil moves school
- When the pupil moves to high school
- If the pupil moves class
- When the pupil will be taught by a new teacher

25. Teaching about bereavement and grief

25.1 Different aspects of the curriculum will be used to discuss relationships, feelings and emotions, and to think about how to manage these in relation to family events and death. Before delivering any lessons that cover topics of death and bereavement, the teacher will consider how the lesson may affect the bereaved pupils they are teaching.

25.2 Bereaved pupils and their families will be consulted over whether it is appropriate for them to attend lessons about death or bereavement, and alternative arrangements or additional support will be put in place as required. Where appropriate, the teacher will discuss what the lesson is going to cover with the pupil and will work with the pupil to design activities that the pupil feels they are able to get involved with.

25.3 Any lessons covering topics of death or bereavement will take account of religious and cultural beliefs.

26. Staff training

26.1 All SLT will receive training in bereavement support. SLT will organise whole-school training sessions based around this policy, to share their knowledge with all staff members, including support staff, annually.

26.2 If any members of staff are not confident in delivering some level of bereavement support to pupils or other staff members, or in implementing this policy, they will speak to the headteacher who will arrange for the staff member to undergo the appropriate training.

26.3 The headteacher will check if the staff that work for third party providers that deliver extra-curricular activities for pupils have received bereavement training and will recommend them to do so if this training has not been undertaken.

Appendix 1 - Calculating Statutory Parental Bereavement Pay

[This appendix details how employers can calculate Statutory Parental Bereavement Pay (SPBP) if the payroll software used by an employer does not calculate this payment.]

Definitions

- Qualifying child: Eligible employees can only claim Statutory Parental Bereavement Pay (SPBP) in respect of a child under the age of 18 who dies on or after 6 April 2020. A child under the age of 18 includes babies who are stillborn after the 24th week of pregnancy.
- Relevant week: This is the week, ending on a Saturday, immediately before the one in which the child died or was stillborn.
- Relevant period: This is usually the 8-week period leading up to the relevant week. The end of the relevant period is the last normal payday on, or before, the Saturday of the relevant week. The start of the relevant period is the day after the last normal payday falling at least 8 weeks before the end of the relevant period.

Information needed

The following information is needed to calculate an employee's SPBP:

- The written declaration signed by the employee (form SPBP3) or the version received by the employer
- The date of the child's death or stillbirth
- The date the employee started or wishes to start their SPBP
- The employee's gross pay and the dates the employer paid them
- The date the employee started working for the school

The employer also needs confirmation that the employee's gross earnings:

- Are liable to the employer's Class 1 National Insurance contributions (NICs).
- Would be liable but for their age or level of earnings.

How to calculate average weekly earnings

Average weekly earnings must include all earnings on which Class 1 NICs liability is due or would be due if they were high enough. SPBP entitlement depends on the employee's average weekly earnings in a 'relevant period'. For the 2020/2021 tax year, the employee's average weekly earnings in the relevant period must be £120 or more. To calculate the employee's average weekly earnings, divide all the earnings paid in that relevant period by the number of days, weeks or months in that period.

Example for an employee who is weekly paid where they child dies on 6 April 2020

| Relevant week                 | Payday | Last payday at least 8 weeks before the end of the relevant period | Last payday on or before the Saturday of the relevant week |
|-------------------------------|--------|--|--|
| 29 March 2020 to 4 April 2020 | Friday | 7 February 2020  | 3 April 2020   |

The relevant period is 8 February 2020 to 3 April 2020. Add up all the earnings paid between 8 February 2020 to 3 April 2020 and divide by 8 (i.e. the number of weeks in the relevant period). Do not round the figure up or down to whole pence.

Example for an employee who is monthly paid where their child dies on 6 April 2020

| Relevant week                 | Payday                        | Last payday at least 8 weeks before the end of the relevant period | Last payday on or before the Saturday of the relevant week |
|-------------------------------|-------------------------------|--|--|
| 29 March 2020 to 4 April 2020 | Last working day of the month | 31 January 2020  | 31 March 2020  |

The relevant period is 1 February 2020 to 31 March 2020. Add up all the earnings paid between 1 February 2020 and 31 March 2020:

- Divide by 2 (i.e. the number of months in the relevant period)
- Multiply by 12 (i.e. the number of months in the year)
- Divide by 52 (i.e. the number of weeks in the year)

Do not round the figure up or down to whole pence.

What to do when:

There is a weekly paid employee without a whole number of weeks in the relevant period

This may happen if the employer brings forward an employee’s normal payday because of bank holidays. In this case, divide the earnings by the number of weeks’ wages actually paid, not the number of weeks in the relevant period.

An employee is paid multiples of a week

This may happen if the employee is paid fortnightly or 4-weekly. In this case, divide the earnings by the number of whole weeks in the relevant period.

There is a monthly paid employee without a whole number of months in the relevant period

Work out the number of rounded months as follows:

- Count the number of whole months
- Count the number of odd days

Round up or down as follows:

- February – 14 days or less round down, 15 days or more round up
- Any other month – 15 days or less round down, 16 days or more round up

Divide the earnings by this number of rounded months.

An employee is not paid in a regular pattern

In this case, divide the earnings by the number of days in the relevant period and multiply by 7.

Payments are mistimed

This only applies to regular payments of earnings paid other than on their normal date, e.g. due to a bank holiday. In this case, divide the total earnings in the relevant period by the number of weeks wages actually paid.

Mistimed payments should not be confused with a payroll error.

The employee has been overpaid or underpaid during the relevant period

Always calculate average weekly earnings on all earnings actually paid within the relevant period. Where over or under payment of wages occur within the relevant period, include the overpaid or underpaid amount in the calculation to decide if SPBP is due.

The employee has entered into salary sacrifice with the employer

In this case, calculate the employee's average weekly earnings using the amount of earnings actually paid to them after the sacrifice during the relevant period.

The employee has other contractual benefits

When calculating average weekly earnings for SPBP, base the calculation on earnings which are subject to Class 1 NICs. Any benefits which are exempt from Class 1 NICs (such as some childcare vouchers) will not be included in the calculation.

Earnings in the relevant period are affected by a backdated pay rise

If the employee receives a backdated pay rise which increases the amount of earnings already paid in the relevant period, their average earnings need to be recalculated. This should be done if the employee was either:

- Not entitled to SPBP.
- Entitled to SPBP at less than the standard rate.

The employee's average weekly earnings must be recalculated to check whether they are:

- Now entitled, and pay any SPBP due.
- Entitled to an increase, and pay any extra SPBP due.

How to calculate SPBP

SPBP is a weekly payment. It lasts for 1 or 2 complete weeks. Eligible employees can choose to take two consecutive weeks or two separate blocks of one week each. They are able to claim SPBP in respect of a week that they were absent from work. Eligible employees must take their SPBP within 56 weeks of their child's death or stillbirth.

The employee must be paid the lower weekly rate of:

- £151.20 from 6 April 2020
- 90 percent of their average weekly earnings

The SPBP period starts the day after the last day the employee worked before starting their Parental Bereavement Leave. SPBP weeks start with the first day of the pay period – so a period which starts on a Wednesday will have pay weeks within the pay period which run from Wednesday to the following Tuesday.

SPBP paid part-weekly

SPBP can be paid as part weeks to help employers align the payments to their employee's normal pay period. The weekly rate can be split into 2. If this is done, the calculation is done on the basis of dividing the weekly rate by 7. For example, if the pay period covers the end of one month and the beginning of the next (2 days in April and 5 days in May) then pay 2/7ths in one month and 5/7ths the next month.

Appendix 2 - Considerations in relation to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic

The appendix has been created in accordance with government guidance and advice from bereavement organisations such as Winston's Wish and Cruse Bereavement Care.

The school will act in accordance with the Bereavement Policy as set out above as much as possible; however, we recognise the unprecedented nature of the coronavirus pandemic and that we may need to support the school community using some different approaches. This appendix sets out what additional actions the school will take to support pupils, staff and the wider school community during and after the coronavirus pandemic

Support for pupils

Support for pupils will continue to be implemented in line with section 11 of this policy as far as possible; however, other measures will be implemented to account for the partial closure of the school.

The headteacher will inform pupils and their parents/carers via letter of the support available, both from the school and externally.

The headteacher will arrange for links to resources that can support pupils with bereavement during the coronavirus to be hosted on the school website.

Where necessary SLT will arrange a number of scheduled sessions throughout the week where pupils are able to get in touch with a member of staff to discuss any concerns or questions they have related to bereavement and the pandemic. Other staff members will assist SLT in speaking to pupils during these contact points as required.

Pupils who are known to be vulnerable will be identified and designated a key member of staff who will be responsible for keeping in touch with this pupil and their parents/carers.

Support for staff

SLT will advise other members of staff of how to support pupils during partial school closure.

Support for staff will continue to be implemented in line with section 10 of this policy as far as possible.

The headteacher will inform staff of the support available to them both in school and externally.

Line managers will arrange regular catch ups with the members of staff in their team, where they can discuss any questions or concerns relating to bereavement and the coronavirus pandemic. These conversations will be held face-to-face, if both staff members are working in school, or via telephone or video call if one or more staff members are working remotely.

The headteacher will identify staff members who are known to be vulnerable and will arrange for SLT to contact these members of staff to identify any additional support that is required.

Supporting those who have experienced the death of someone close to them

If the school learns that a pupil or member of staff has experienced the death of someone close to them, the following process will be followed:

- The headteacher will contact the family via telephone to:
  - Acknowledge what has happened.
  - Express their support and the support of the school community.
  - Discuss how the family would like the news to be shared with the rest of the school community, bearing in mind that not all staff and pupils will be present on the school premises at this time.
  - Check whether the family want their contact information to be shared.

- Agree on one or two contacts who will liaise with the family and, where a pupil is bereaved, the child.
- Direct the family towards additional support they can access, e.g. bereavement charities such as Winston's Wish.
- The headteacher will share the information with staff members. Those staff members that are on the school premises will be told during a staff briefing and staff members that are at home will be contacted by the headteacher via telephone.
- The headteacher will inform the Chair of the Management Committee of what has happened via telephone.
- A member of SLT will contact the pupil or staff member via letter to acknowledge what has happened and express their support.
- The information is shared with the wider school community, as agreed with the family and taking into consideration that not all pupils and parents/carers are able to come to the school premises.
- The headteacher and SLT will identify pupils and staff members who may be particularly vulnerable (i.e. those who have been bereaved or who have a seriously ill relative). SLT will arrange to speak to these pupils and staff members individually, either face-to-face or via telephone depending on whether they are on the school premises.

Remembrance activities

During partial school closure and while social distancing measures remain in place, the school will not hold group remembrance activities, e.g. remembrance assemblies.

Other remembrance activities will be undertaken as appropriate, e.g. compiling condolences from the school community and sending these to the family.

Where a death has affected the whole school community, e.g. the death of a pupil or staff member, the headteacher will decide whether a memorial service will be held at a later date.

Support for the school community during the recovery phase

When the school reopens, SLT will speak to pupils and staff members who have experienced the death of someone close to them and ensure the appropriate support remains in place.

The headteacher and SLT will discuss whether it would be appropriate for certain pupils and staff that have been affected to have a phased return to school.

Calculating Statutory Parental Bereavement Pay

[Please note that the following rules apply where the employee's period of family-related statutory pay begins on or after 25 April 2020. Also note that the government does not expect state-funded schools to furlough staff, except for in certain circumstances, e.g. where the staff member's salary is funded solely by a private income stream such as sports lettings.]

The amount of Statutory Parental Bereavement Pay (SPBP) owed to an employee that has been furloughed will be calculated as outlined in Appendix A; however, the guidelines below will be followed in relation to working out the average weekly earnings of an employee that was on furlough and paid with help from the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme (CJRS) during any part of the relevant 8-week period.

The earnings used to work out the employee's average weekly earnings for the part of the 8-week period that they were furloughed will be the higher of either what they:

- Actually received from the employer.
- Would have received from the employer had they not been on furlough.

Where it is not clear what the employee would have received, the reference salary will be used to determine how much can be claimed through the CJRS, in line with the 'Work out 80% of your employees' wages to claim through the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme' guidance.

Payments the employee was due to receive in the relevant period that would have been classed as earnings will also be considered, e.g. commission payments.

No changes to how an employee's average weekly earnings will be needed where:

- The employee's wages are being claimed through the CJRS, but the employer is topping them up to full pay.
- As a result of the coronavirus pandemic, during the relevant period the employee and employer agreed a reduction in pay outside of the CJRS.
