POLICY

1. Introduction

- 1.1. The School recognises that employees perform at their best when they know what is expected of them, have clear objectives and understand their job role. Employees also need to understand the aims of their department/team and School, and how their job supports these.
- 1.2. This policy sets out The School's approach to performance capability matters where an employee appears to be not performing to the required standard due to a lack of knowledge, skill or ability. Its aim is to help employees improve their performance so that they can successfully undertake the role for which they are employed.
- 1.3. This policy does not deal with performance issues during an employee's probation period. Concerns about lack of capability or underperformance during the probation period should be referred to the Probation Policy and Procedure for Support Staff (Schools).
- 1.4. The Disciplinary policy and procedure will be used where there is an allegation of unacceptable behaviour or conduct, examples of which are listed, including gross misconduct, in the School's Code of Conduct.

2. Scope

- 2.1. This policy and procedure applies to all support staff employees except those in their probation period or where an employee's contractual terms and conditions provide otherwise. This policy and procedure does not apply to Teaching staff within schools, there is a separate Capability procedure for Teachers available.

3. Equality and Diversity

- 3.1. Equality and diversity underpin all the School employment policies, procedures and practices. The School actively promotes equality of opportunity and values diversity among its employees.
- 3.2. Employees with disabilities are assured of receiving fair treatment and will be considered on their ability to do their job following implementation of reasonable adjustments to their role or workplace where appropriate.

Where an employee considers they have a disability (see paragraph 3.4) they should declare this to their headteacher, so that adjustments can be considered and agreed/implemented where reasonable to do so. It is recommended that any adjustments are fully recorded, the Workplace Adjustments Passport is a useful tool to record such discussions and is available on HR Sharepoint. A risk assessment may also be required.

Under the Equality Act 2010, a person is disabled if they have a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to carry out normal day to day activities. Long-term means the condition must last, or is likely to last, for more than 12 months, or is likely to last for the rest of the life of the person affected.

Headteachers are encouraged to seek advice from the Schools HR Consultancy Team and/or Occupational Health where a performance concern may relate to an employee's disability.

4. Principles

- 4.1. For the purposes of this policy 'performance' is both what an employee does (i.e. progress against their objectives) and how they do their jobs (i.e. their behaviours). Successful performance is where an employee:
 - Consistently meets and occasionally exceeds expectations/objectives/delivers successful results; and
 - Demonstrates behaviour that is mostly in keeping with the standards and values of the School.
- 4.2. The Capability Procedure - Support Staff will involve both informal and formal processes. Formal action will not be instigated until after the informal process has been concluded, with a view of supporting the employee to improve their underperformance. When targets are set under informal or formal stages, they should be SMART - Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Result-focused and Time-bound.
- 4.3. The School reserves the right to enter the process at any formal stage (subject to the informal procedures having been exhausted) depending on the severity of the performance concerns or circumstances of a particular case.
- 4.4. Where an employee has been subject to formal Performance Improvement Warning in the preceding 2 years, and demonstrated that they could achieve satisfactory performance, but then further performance concerns arise, the School reserves the right to resume performance management at the next formal stage. Depending on the circumstances of the case, it may also be necessary to consider whether action under the Disciplinary policy and procedure is more appropriate. It is recommended that advice is sought from the Schools HR Consultancy Team before a decision is made under this section.
- 4.5. A flow chart giving an overview of the Capability Procedure - Support Staff procedure/stages is available as an Appendix 1 to this document. The Procedure comprises Informal, Formal and Appeal levels

5. Right to be accompanied

- 5.1. Employees have the right to be represented by a Trade Union representative or accompanied by a work colleague at a formal meeting and/or appeal hearing. Where a work colleague is also a relative/partner the employee will be asked to select an alternative companion.
- 5.2. Employees should let the meeting chair know in advance, the name and capacity (Trade Union representative or colleague) of their intended companion to enable their inclusion in the arrangements for the meeting.
- 5.3. The companion can address the formal meeting, put and sum up the employee's case, respond on the employee's behalf to any views expressed at the formal meeting and confer with them during the formal meeting. They may also request an adjournment and ask questions of anyone present. The companion does not have the right to answer questions on the employee's behalf, address the formal meeting if the employee does not wish it or prevent the employer representative when in attendance from explaining their case.

- 5.4. Formal capability meetings and/or appeals should not be unreasonably delayed because a chosen companion is unavailable. The employee should liaise with the relevant TU representative or companion to arrange a mutually convenient time. If an employee's TU representative or companion is not available at the time a meeting is scheduled, the meeting can be postponed to a time proposed by the employee, providing the alternative time is reasonable and not more than five working days after the date originally proposed. If the companion is not available for more than 5 working days afterwards, the School may ask the employee to choose someone else.
- 5.5. Formal capability meetings and hearings are internal proceedings, external representatives such as solicitors or family members will not be permitted to attend.
- 5.6. Where the companion is an employee of the School, they may have reasonable paid time off to fulfil the responsibility including time to confer with the employee before and after the hearing and covering attendance at the formal meeting and/or appeal.

6. Responsibilities

- 6.1. Line Manager/Headteachers: Under the Capability Procedure - Support Staff, Line Manager/Headteachers have a number of duties to the employees they manage including:
 - Being clear about what they expect from the employee, agreeing the objectives, competencies and any development needs to enable them to fulfil their role
 - Raising any concerns relating to unsatisfactory performance as they occur
 - Monitoring an employee's performance against their objectives to check whether the required standards have been achieved and maintained
 - Providing objective feedback – including praise to encourage progress and recognise achievements, but also highlighting if performance needs to improve
 - Providing support to help an employee improve their performance if they appear to be underperforming – this might include learning and development, coaching, mentoring and advice
 - Instigating the formal procedure where an employee's performance doesn't meet the required standards and informal action has failed
- 6.2. Employees: Employees must take ownership of their own performance. This includes:
 - Taking an active role in reviewing their own performance and suggesting objectives.
 - Talking to their Line Manager/Headteachers in a timely fashion about support and the resources they need to perform.
 - Taking up relevant learning and development opportunities.
 - Managing their continuous professional development.
- 6.3. If there is any doubt with respect to roles and responsibilities, particularly under the formal stages the School Scheme of Delegation must be referred to.

PROCEDURE

7. Informal Monitoring

- 7.1. The day-to-day interaction between the Line Manager/Headteacher and an employee is key to picking up concerns relating to an employee's level of knowledge, skill or ability, against the expected standard and/or the requirements of their role.
- 7.2. Line Manager/Headteachers are required to keep thorough records of any concerns raised and discussed with the employee, support offered, improvements required and timescales for improvement.
- 7.3. Where there are concerns raised an improvement should be seen within a reasonable period, not normally exceeding 6 weeks. If this isn't achieved the formal stage will be instigated.
- 7.4. Line Manager/Headteachers should make every effort to support employees to improve performance. This list is not exhaustive, and Line Manager/Headteachers do not have to evidence every point, but examples include:
 - Day to day management, and regular supervision/1:1 meetings with employees
 - Being clear on expected standards and objectives
 - Discussing possible shortcomings, and giving feedback/encouragement to employees, and listening to any concerns/limitations they might have relating to their ability to achieve the required standard
 - Providing support to employees (e.g. coaching/mentoring/learning and development /counselling/advice etc.)
 - Being clear about what is needed if improvements required, and any time frames/reviews
 - Meeting regularly with employees to review progress
- 7.5. Line Manager/Headteachers can use a Performance Improvement Action Plan (PIAP) Appendix 2 to set out and evidence the performance standards/expectations and objectives, support the outcomes and detail the action points arising from informal performance discussions:
 - SET performance standards and objectives with employee
 - DO: employee performs
 - REVIEW: Line Manager/Headteacher regularly meeting with employee

8. Formal Procedure

- 8.1. Where action through informal management of an employee's performance has been exhausted, and not led to sustained performance improvement to the standard required, the Formal Procedure should commence.
- 8.2. Where an employee has been subject to formal Performance Improvement Warning in the preceding 2 years and demonstrated that they could achieve satisfactory performance, but then further performance concerns arise, the School reserves the right to resume performance management at the next formal stage. Depending on the circumstances of the case, it may also be necessary to consider whether action under the Managing Conduct policy is more appropriate. Advice should be sought from the Schools HR Consultancy Team before a decision is made under this section.

8.3. Points Applicable to all formal stages:

- Line Manager/Headteacher must always explain concerns about employee's performance and show supporting evidence for the concerns
- Employee has a right to be accompanied at formal meetings given it could result in action leading to dismissal
- HR consultant will normally attend in an advisory capacity
- Employee will always be given a chance to explain why they feel they are not meeting the standard/offer any mitigating circumstances
- Line Manager/Headteacher to provide feedback on performance, focussing on ways to improve and any support available (e.g. learning and development, coaching, mentoring, advice, etc)
- Line Manager/Headteachers must consider requests for reasonable adjustments where an employee is disabled
- Employees may appeal against any warning issued during the formal stages.

9. Formal Procedure – Stage 1 – General Principles

9.1. Stage 1 is the first referral to the formal procedure. This stage comprises of an Assessment Meeting, Warning and Improvement Review Meeting and is not started until after informal action has been exhausted. The Line Manager/Headteacher will consider:

- The reason for the poor performance
- The improvement required, support measures to be put in place and timescales

11.3. During the warning period, the Line Manager/Headteacher will continue to monitor the employee's performance and review/discuss progress at regular meetings (i.e. 1:1's and supervisions) against the PIAP to confirm whether their performance is improving and reiterate expectations. • DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY FOR DISMISSAL

Dismissal of Staff other than Headteacher

Under the School Staffing (England) Regulations 2009 the Management Committee may delegate its power to determine that any person employed or engaged by the LA to work at the school should cease to work there (Community, Voluntary Controlled, Community Special and Maintained Nursery) or to dismiss its staff (Foundation, Voluntary Aided, Trust, Foundation Special) to:

- (a) one or more Governors and the Headteacher which may be called a Staff Dismissal Committee
- (b) one or more Governors
- (c) the Headteacher.

For the purposes of Appeal rights the Management Committee must appoint a Dismissal Appeal Panel. This should be a panel of three Governors, other than in exceptional circumstances. No Governor to whom the power to dismiss was delegated may sit on the Dismissal Appeal Panel. The Headteacher may not sit on the Dismissal Appeal Panel.

For ease of understanding, those who have the delegated authority to dismiss will be referred to in these proceedings as 'Decision Makers'.
